

Answers - Arc De Triomphe:

1. Napoleon told his men that they would return through arches of triumph. The name is the French translation. Do not accept the French translation without reference to Napoleon's quote.
2. People wanted a place to remember all of the soldiers who had died in wars and who weren't named.
3. It burns forever, like the memories of the soldiers who are represented by the tomb.
4. The sword fell from the La Marseillaise and could possibly have been considered to have been a bad omen.
5. He had crashed his plane and died during training

I: He only wanted to celebrate the victories

V: Eternal

R: 1826

R: 6:30pm

V: Conquered

Answers - The Eiffel Tower:

1. 1,063 feet
2. Victor Lustig
3. The USA
4. 60 tons
5. 18,000

S: To show that they were one of the leading industrial nations

S: The people of Paris had grown to love it so they campaigned to keep it

V: Unscathed

V: The design was radical

I: It was nearly sold and then destroyed during the Second World War

Answers - Fashion Icons:

1. Recognisable
2. Luxurious
3. Parisian(s)
4. Accessible
5. It was famous around the world/lots of people had heard of it/it was everywhere

R: Sumptuary laws

S: The printing press

S: The king wore them to cover his baldness. Everybody wanted to look like the king so they all wore them too.

S: People washed their clothes more so needed extra sets. This meant cheaper clothes were better

I: Lots of people didn't want to be seen to support the king

Answers - French Revolution:

1. Independence
2. The things that the kings had bought for themselves to make themselves happy
3. Nobility
4. Overthrew the government
5. Liberty

S: The first estate was for people of the church (clergy). The second was for the rich and powerful. The third estate was for the common people (neither rich or members of the church).

R: 98%

R: 1799

S: He was executed

I: They weren't being used to provide food for them/prices of food were getting too high

Answers - Parisian Facts:

1. The City of Love
2. The Parisii
3. The Seine
4. Boldini
5. The Statue of Liberty

V: Lots of people want to visit.

V: Somewhere that people head to.

I: It is about camouflage, which helps to prevent people from being able to see soldiers.

E: Accept answers that reference it making the information easier to find.

S: Saint Genevieve stepped in and scared him away. He was then made a patron saint of Paris.