

Science

Our new unit this half term will involve the children learning about materials.

Task - Go on a 'Material Hunt' around your house, identify different materials that objects in your house are made from. Are some objects made from more than one type of material?

Create a poster about the different materials that you find.